

SECOND PLAN OF DISSEMINATION – AMENDED NOTICE OF CLAIMS PROCESS
CANADIAN FX PRICE-FIXING CLASS ACTION

The Amended Notice of Claims Process shall be distributed in the following manner:

Amended Short-Form Notice:

1. Shall be published once in the following newspapers, in either English or French, as is appropriate for each newspaper, subject to each having reasonable publication deadlines and costs:
 - (a) The Globe and Mail (National Edition);
 - (b) The Financial Post; and
 - (c) Le Journal de Montréal.
2. Shall be posted in English and French:
 - (a) by Class Counsel on Class Counsel's respective websites; and
 - (b) by the Claims Administrator at <http://www.canadianfxnationalclassaction.ca/>, a website established for the purposes of the litigation.
3. Where the person or company is located in Quebec, the Amended Notice will be sent in English and French.

Amended Long-Form Notice:

4. Shall be posted in English and French:
 - (a) by Class Counsel on Class Counsel's respective websites; and
 - (b) by the Claims Administrator at <http://www.canadianfxnationalclassaction.ca/>, a website established for the purposes of the litigation.
5. Shall be sent by email within seven (7) days of the first publication of the Publication Amended Notice, by the Claims Administrator, to:
 - (a) persons who inquired about the class action, to the extent that Class Counsel or the Claims Administrator have their name and address information;
 - (b) the customers of the defendants to the extent that such information has been provided to Class Counsel or the Claims Administrator; and
 - (c) the headquarters of each business listed in the most recent version of the FP500 list of Canada's largest corporations by revenue.

Press Release:

6. A press release will be issued in English and French through the Canadian Press (Nasdaq GlobeNewswire).

Digital Advertising:

7. Digital notice will be provided through advertisements placed on the following advertising and social media networks: Google, Yahoo, Facebook and LinkedIn.